

The Budget and Family-Strengthening Organizations: What Does the Budget Process Mean to You and the Work You Do?

This workshop co-sponsored by the California Family Resource Association (CFRA) and the California Budget Project (CBP) is designed to provide participants with information regarding the proposed state budget and how it will affect the work you do to improve the lives of children and families in California. Participants will:

- Learn how the state's budget process works – Knowledge is power!
- Learn how programs are funded – Are your programs at risk? What can you do to protect them?
- Learn how to effectively influence the budget process – A unified voice is the strongest tool of influence in our democracy.
- And, learn how the Governor proposes to bridge this year's budget gap – Will this include cuts that will affect children and families?
